JAMES CLABBURN.—On the 9th inst., at St. Paul's Church, Brighton, by the Rev. J. E. Halliwell, Lionel James, Head Master of Monmouth Grammar School, youngest son of the late George Coulson James, of Penzance, to Ethel de Pearsall, eldest daughter of the late Arthur Edward Clabburn, Gordon Highlanders. (Colonial papers please copy.)

Marriage of Mr. Lionel James.—The wedding was quietly solemnized on Monday morning, at 9.30, at the Church of St. Paul, Brighton, of Mr. Lionel James, the headmaster of the Monmouth Grammar School, youngest son of the late George Coulson James, of Penzance, and Miss Ethel de Pearsall Clabburn, eldest daughter of the late Arthur Edward Clabburn, Gordon Highlanders. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Halliwell, Vicar of St. Paul's. The bride, who was given away by her mother, was attired in a travelling dress of Irish tweed, and was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Clabburn. The best man was Dr. T. Noy Leah, cousin of the bridegroom. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was given at 38, Goldstone Villas, Hove, the residence of the bride's mother, those present including Miss Coulson James, the bridegroom's sister, and Mr. Cyril H. Pearson. At 11 o'clock the happy pair left for the English Lakes, where the honeymoon is being spent. There were a large number of beautiful presents from relatives and friends from Monmouth and elsewhere.
